m H. Haworth, esq., 375 Fifth Brooklyn, N. Y. Bir: The condition of our people

Dear Sir: The condition of our people in town for the time is easy. How we have to wait for frost we cantell. Business will not open for sevimonths. As soon as quarantine is sed there will be a rush into town those now camping out in the woods: 3,500 more mouths to feed even in a re disastrous condition than our-wes. Money would help us more at sent than supplies, as we have sees and doctors to pay and coal and yet to purchase. We thank you for kind offers, and leave it to your cretion to do what you can in our all. Yours truly, "Per E. O. complainant was anxious to withdraw the complaint.

"No; we have had too much of this business of late," said Justice Martin.
"I cannot allow you to withdraw it."

The man said he was John Lenehan, of 42 East Fourteenth street. Both name and address are fictitious. He is instead the son of a policeman, who is almost heartbroken over his actions.

It is said that since the arrest the boy's mother has been ill in bed from the shock.

As soon as the man was arraigned the Judge was quietly informed as to his identity. This was apparently with the object of having as much lenlency as possible extended, and it looked as though it would have the desired of fect. The complainant was John Lee, of 378 Washington street.

"Too I understand that you wish to withdraw the charge? asked the Judge.

"Well, I don't know Yes, I think I twill," said Lee stepping forward. "I suppose you might as well let him go." "No, I don't think I will," Judge Martin answered, after looking at the complaint a moment, "Let me hear your story."

Lee said that on Monday night last, while walking along Washington street, near Desbrosses, Lenehan, who was accompanied by another man, sprang upon him, selzed him by the neck with both

District-Attorney Fitzgerald's Novel Position on Staten Island

CLIFTON, S. I., Nov. 1 .- District-Attorney Thomas W. Fitzgerald, Excise Commissioner George Van Name and Edward Lawson, who were arrested on complaint of Lestar A. Scofield and David A. Jones, two prominent Republiof tampering with ballots at a primary meeting, appeared before Justice Cornell this morning for examination.

District-Attorney Fitzgerald said that he, Mr. Van Name and Mr. Lawson refused to enter a piea. Neither would they give ball, and they were ready for trial or to be sent to the County Jail, just as the Justice saw fit to do.

As prosecutor of the County it was Mr. Fitzgerald's duty to prosecute the charge against the defendants at the same time as he appeared as counsel for himself and the other defendants.

After a lively wrangle between the lawyers, Justice Cornell finally decided to adjourn the case until Friday morning.
